Note:

- a) COVID-19 is a viral infection that is pre-dominately transmitted through respiratory droplets like coughing, sneezing, speaking, etc. Facemask when worn by a healthy person is known to protect self and when worn by an infected individual will prevent further spread of infection. Widespread and proper use of appropriate facemasks in a community is known to effectively prevent the spread of infection.

..3..

- b) Everyone should wear a mask whenever they are in public with few exceptions. Use of Mask is particularly important in environments where there is a higher risk of virus transmission. These include indoor environments, and particularly those with any of the "3 Cs":

3) Details of tests conducted and the positivity rate during the past 4 months in Bengaluru

	July 2020	August 2020	September 2020	*October 2020
Total Positive Cases	52,106	74,696	1,02,458	89,860
Positivity Rate	24.15%	13.45%	12.79%	9.00%
Number of Tests Done	2,15,765	5,55,400	8,01,288	9,98,101

*Till 25th October 2020

From the above table it is seen that the number of tests conducted has been steadily rising and on an average we are conducting nearly 50000 tests per day with a result the positivity rate of the city of Bengaluru is gradually coming down. During the last one week it is seen that the positivity rate has fallen below 10%. We need to continue this trend and aim for a positivity rate for below 5%. Also it is very imperative that there should not be any room for complacency and the same tempo needs to be maintained. One of the most important factor which enables BBMP to bring down the positivity rate is the strict enforcement of COVID appropriate behavior among the citizens of Bengaluru. The BBMP has been doing a lot of IEC activities and appealing to the citizens for strict compliance of the following three Cs and three Ws.

Avoid 3 Cs

Closed Spaces with poor ventilation
Crowds (more than 2 is a crowd)
Close contact settings (close-range conversations)

Follow 3 Ws

3 Ws can make a Big difference

Watch your distance: remain six feet of people
Wear a mask: Public Places
Wash your hands

It is observed that inspite of large IEC activities and appeal to the citizens for wearing of masks and maintaining social distance at all public places, it is found that some of the citizens are blatantly violating the COVID-19 directives and accordingly a penalty of Rs.250/- is being imposed for every such willful violation. The BBMP has also engaged nearly 220 Marshals who are retired army personnel and these Marshals have been relentlessly working in the field alongwith the police personnel for ensuring no violation of wearing of masks and social distance is observed.

Further it is felt that more stringent measures are required by the BBMP and the Police authorities for ensuring there is absolutely no violation in the COVID-19 directives and every citizen as soon as he comes out of his house will wear masks in public places and also maintains social distance. Hence, the following committees are being formed in all the 198 Wards, 27 divisions, 8 Zones and at the head office level. The Committees consists of the following members:

Sl. No.	Ward Level Committee
